

THE GEORGIAN HOTEL

SANTA MONICA, CA

Originally built in 1933, this destination is a wonderful example of the distinctive Art Deco architecture. Continually modernized over the years to retain its high quality experience, the Georgian has long been a destination hotel, combining the amenities of Santa Monica and southern California with the ocean air and beaches of the Pacific Ocean. Over its 70+ years of operation, the 28 lavish suites and 56 guest rooms, the Georgian has been the home away from home for people like Carol Lombard and Clark Gable, "Fatty" Arbuckle and Bugsy Segal, as well as potpourris of notables from around the world.

Central to the experience is a meal on the Georgian's famous Veranda. Enjoy breakfast, lunch and dinner there, and select from a menu of fine wines and spirits to enjoy while you watch the sun set into the ocean. The service is special. Try the hotel's signature drink, the Art Deco martini, the Georgini.

Guests at the Georgian enjoy instant access to the beach, and a very short walk takes you to the historical Santa Monica Pier or the world renowned Third Street Promenade. Bike rentals are available with bike paths up and down the beach. Beware of the unscrupulous parking police! For complete details, log onto GeorgianHotel.com, or call 800.538.8147. Airport: Santa Monica Airport (SMO), 310.458.8411.
