

DISCOVER OUR SMALL TOWNS

They're as American as Apple Pie – With Loads to See & Do.

Lawrence, Kansas

Cultural Crossroads

Poet Langston Hughes called Lawrence, Kan., home and so did writer William S. Burroughs. With such prolific artists residing in this college town, it's no wonder that the Lawrence Downtown District is a Mecca of diversity that you can't find anywhere else. The city has original works housed in many boutiques, cafes and restaurants along the famous tree-lined Massachusetts "Mass" Street. There's even a Downtown Lawrence Outdoor Sculpture Exhibit, the only one of its kind in the United States displaying works from local, regional and national artists. And don't forget to visit the Lawrence Arts Center, which provides an extensive calendar of exhibitions, performances and classes. VisitLawrence.com, 785.865.4499.

FBO in the Know: Hetrick Air Services, located at the Lawrence Municipal Airport (LWC), has a courteous, professional staff who can assist pilots with services that include hotel reservations, rental cars and ground transportation. They even provide catering, a conference room and recreational planning. HetrickAirServices.com, 888.785.8420.

Tangipahoa Parish, Louisiana B&B Equals R&R

In Tangipahoa Parish, La., historic bed and breakfasts give this quaint county its flavor. So tour any one of these historic B&Bs or, better yet, book a room. For Greek Revival fans, visit Blythewood – which was built before the Civil War. The Hughes House Bed and Breakfast is a Queen Anne-style house, which was once part of the Hammond town founder's estate. Or for an early 20th-century setting, book a room at Country Lane Bed & Breakfast, built in 1938 by the current owner's father and situated on 300 acres of land with a home built from lumber milled from pine timber harvested on the property. Tangi-CVB.org, 800.617.4505.

FBO in the Know: Set your heading to Hammond Northshore Regional Airport (HDC) and you'll find Top Gun Aviation with its Southern-style hospitality and service. The facility provides aviation fuel, aircraft parking and hangars. It also offers a passenger terminal and lounge, pilot supplies and rental car services. TGAHammond@I-55.com, 985.542.0719.

Northern Kentucky, Kentucky

Family Fun

Located on the southern side of Cincinnati, Ohio, Northern Kentucky offers visitors several attractions to choose from – all geared for family fun. Visit the Kentucky Horse Park, a 1,200-acre working horse farm with two outstanding museums, twin theaters and nearly 50 different breeds of horses. To keep the kids occupied while you have your adult fun, take them to Lazer Kraze, which features multi-level space-station laser tag arenas. And for some educational and exciting underwater animal views, go to the Newport Aquarium, which showcases thousands of water creatures from around the world in a million gallons of fresh and saltwater. NKYCVB.com, 877.NKY.VISIT

FBO in the Know: Situated at the Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky International Airport (CVG), Delta AirElite Jet Center has more than 22 years of experience serving business aviation travelers. Top-notch services include easy access to airline connections worldwide, a flight-planning room and flight-preparation kitchen, as well as lounge areas, a sleep room and showers for flight crews. AirElite.com, 859.767.3501.

